UNIVERSITY OF REGINA COUNCIL

Item for Decision

Subject: Revisions to the Council Rules and Regulations

MOTION: That Council approve the revisions to the Council Rules and Regulations as presented in Attachments A and B.

Rationale:

A table summary of the proposed revisions is included in Attachment A. These proposed revisions are reflected in Attachment B (red-line version of the Rules and Regulations).

At the Council meeting of 8 December 2025, there was robust discussion on some of the proposed amendments to Council Rules and Regulations. Therefore, a revised version has been provided for Council's consideration. The sections that have changed from the version proposed at the December meeting have been identified in italics in Attachment A.

Prior to making an omnibus motion to approve all proposed revisions, Council may wish to separately discuss the following:

Election of Student Representatives

Sections 2.2.3 and 4.5 of the Council Rules and Regulations currently reference the bylaws of the University of Regina Students' Union (URSU), but should more appropriately reference The University of Regina Act, which provides direction with respect to student representation on University of Regina governance bodies. The proposed amendments also reflect wording clarification to ensure consistency with Section 76 of the Act, and to add reference to Academic Units that also have student representation on Council.

After consideration of the discussion during and following the 8 December 2025 meeting, additional proposed changes with respect to election procedures for student representative on Council were removed from the proposed revisions, while explicitly retaining the expectation of involvement by the student representative organization.

Executive of Council Terms of Reference

At the 6 December 2019 meeting of Council, Council accepted the recommendation of the Council Agenda Committee to change the Council Rules and Regulations to allow Executive of Council to govern its own meetings and proceedings and to enable the timely approval and archive of meeting materials. Following the meeting, Section 2.1.3 of the Council Rules and Regulations was revised. Unfortunately, the same wording in Section 4.1 was not adjusted due to error of the University Secretary. This proposed change aligns the two sections of the Council Rules and Regulations to reflect the vote of Council at the previous meeting.

A link to the agenda and minutes of the 6 December 2019 meeting has been provided for Council's reference.

NOTE: Other proposed revisions reflect:

- Removal of gendered language as suggested at the 8 December 2025 meeting (Sections 2.2.6 and 4.2)
- Correction and deletion of certain definitions (Section 1.1) and revisions to align with Senate Bylaws (Section 5.11.1)
- Inclusion of Academic Units where appropriate, throughout the document
- Inclusion of the Vice-President (Academic) of First Nations University of Canada as a member of Executive of Council to reflect their differing structure from the other two federated colleges (Section 4.3.4)
- Correction of typos

Council has responsibilities in connection with certain matters related to the academic affairs of the University. In certain matters reserved under the Act for the final judgment of the Senate, Council is responsible for acting on behalf of the University in framing the necessary reports, proposals and the recommendations. It may also make recommendations to the President on the academic and physical plans for the University, as well as any matters considered by the Council to be of interest to the University.

Through a delegation from Senate, Council is responsible for academic and non-academic discipline of students including the establishment of regulations respecting the discipline of students.

Section 78 of the Act sets out the duties of Council which includes that Council shall make rules for governing its meetings and proceedings for the transaction of business, setting quorum and establishing committees as required.

Details of academic standards for students approved by Council are found in the University of Regina Undergraduate Calendar and/or the University of Regina Graduate ~~Studies and Research~~ Calendar. The Calendars published on the University website are the official versions.

Section A: Procedural Rules

A1. Preparation

1. Meetings of the Committee are scheduled as required.
2. Students wishing to appeal a disciplinary decision must submit a notice of appeal in writing to the University Secretary's Office, within 30 days following the date of the disciplinary decision.
3. Students are required to meet with the University Secretary's Office prior to the hearing being scheduled.
4. Written notice of the hearing, and information about the Committee's procedures, is provided at least twenty (20) business days in advance of the scheduled date to the affected parties (the student and the University Officer). Cases will normally be heard within four (4) months of the date of the first notice of hearing.
5. Each party is required to provide a detailed written submission for the Committee.
6. At least fifteen (15) business days prior to the scheduled hearing, the student is required to provide to the University Secretary a written submission setting out the basis for their appeal, along with all supporting documents and evidence they will be relying on at the hearing. The student's submission should include, as a minimum, the grounds for seeking appeal, the evidence in support of their case and the name and relationship of their advocate (if any). Should a student choose to bring legal counsel as their advocate, the University Officer will also have legal counsel present. This submission will immediately be provided to the University Officer. If the student's submission is not received by the prescribed deadline, the hearing will be cancelled and the student will be deemed to have irrevocably abandoned their appeal (and the disciplinary decision will stand).

7. At least ten (10) business days in advance of the hearing, the University Officer is required to provide to the University Secretary a written submission. The University Officer's submission should include, as a minimum, the evidence relied upon for the finding of misconduct (and any evidence to address matters raised in the student's submission), and the rationale for the disciplinary decision and the penalty assigned.
8. Witnesses are not necessary at most hearings. However, if the student or the University Officer wish to bring witnesses, they must provide the names of such witnesses and a statement about the evidence each witness will provide as part of their written submission. The Chair will review the witness statements in advance of the hearing. If the Chair determines that the evidence of any witness is not relevant to the hearing, the Chair will advise the party seeking to call the witness that the witness will not be allowed to testify at the hearing, citing their reason.
9. The Committee does not summon witnesses. It is up to the parties to make arrangements for the approved witnesses that each wish to call.
10. At least five (5) business days in advance of the hearing, the University Secretary's Office will distribute the student's notice of appeal and the written submission of both the student and the University Officer to members of the Committee, the student, and the University Officer.
11. The hearing will be based on the parties' written submissions and the evidence included by them with their written submissions (along with oral testimony and submissions made at the hearing). Written submissions are expected to be comprehensive and complete, as new evidence will not normally be allowed (i.e. "walked on") at the hearing.

A2. Hearing

1. The hearing is not open to the public. Only the parties, their advocates, and their witnesses may attend.
2. The hearing will be recorded, should transcripts be needed for future appeal proceedings. The record of the hearing will be retained by the University Secretary's Office until the appeal process has been exhausted.
3. Each party may choose to bring one advocate. The role of the advocate is to assist in the presentation of the case/submissions. In addition, the University Officer may bring a subject matter expert (e.g. the instructor of the course).
4. Other than with the permission of the Chair in exceptional circumstances, parties will not be entitled to bring forward evidence at the hearing that has not been included with their written submissions.
5. The hearing will proceed as follows:

- a. The University Officer and/or the Officer’s advocate will briefly present the case against the student, and may call any witnesses that have been permitted, in advance, by the Chair.
 - b. The student or their advocate may then ask questions of the University Officer and their witnesses (if any), followed by questions from the Committee members.
 - c. The student and/or their advocate will briefly present the student’s case and may call any witnesses that have been permitted, in advance, by the Chair.
 - d. The University Officer or their advocate may ask questions of the student and their witnesses (if any), followed by questions from the Committee members. The student (not their advocate) will be expected to answer questions from the Committee.
 - e. Each party (or the party’s advocate) may summarize their case at the conclusion of testimony, with the student or student’s advocate speaking last.
6. All parties are asked to state their case concisely and to keep questioning of witnesses to relevant facts; the Chair may set a time limit for testimony or questioning if already-known facts are being reiterated. As a guideline, it is suggested that each party should limit the presentation of their case (including initial and closing summaries and any witness testimony) to 30 minutes.
 7. If the student does not appear at the scheduled hearing date (without explanation and without having requested and being granted an adjournment), the case will be heard in absentia.

A3. Decision

1. The deliberations of the Committee occur after the parties, their advocates, and witnesses have left the meeting. These deliberations are confidential.
2. If the finding of misconduct is substantiated, the penalty assigned by the Committee may be the same as, or less or more severe than, the original penalty.
3. The decision of the Committee, and the reasons for the decision, will be provided to the parties in writing. If the student is to be suspended or expelled, or if a grade of XF is to be assigned, or if a credential is to be withheld or rescinded, the University Secretary’s Office will notify the Registrar for action relative to the student record when the deadline for an appeal to Senate Appeals Committee has expired.

Section B: Rules for Petitioning to Return following a Suspension or Expulsion (Academic or Non-Academic Misconduct)

B1. Preparation

1. Individuals seeking permission to apply for re-admission to the University following an expulsion (a “Petitioner”) must submit an application for re-admission and a letter of petition to the University Secretary’s Office.
2. Written notice of the hearing, and information about the Committee’s procedures, is provided at least twenty (20) business days in advance of the scheduled date to the Petitioner. Petitions will normally be heard within four (4) months of the date of the first notice of hearing.

3. At least ten (10) business days prior to the scheduled hearing, the Petitioner is expected to provide the University Secretary with a written submission articulating why they should be granted permission to apply for re-admission to the University, with any supporting documents and the name of their advocate (if any).
4. At least five (5) business days in advance of the hearing, the University Secretary will distribute the Petitioner's submission to the Committee members and the petitioner, along with any relevant correspondence between the Petitioner and the University related to the Petitioner's academic history, and a copy of all materials submitted for previous appeal hearings (if any).

B2. Hearing

1. The hearing is not open to the public.
2. The Petitioner may bring one advocate. No witnesses are permitted.
3. The Petitioner or their advocate will present their case. The Petitioner has the onus of showing that their petition to return should be granted. The Chair may set a time limit if already-known facts are being reiterated.
4. Committee members may ask questions of the Petitioner.
5. The Petitioner or their advocate will summarize their request.
6. If the Petitioner does not appear at the scheduled hearing date (without explanation and without having requested and being granted an adjournment), their petition will be denied.

B3. Decision

1. The deliberations of the Committee occur after the appellant and their advocate have left the meeting. These deliberations are confidential.
2. The Committee may approve the petition for permission to re-apply or deny the Petitioner their request.
3. The decision of the Committee and the reasons therefore are rendered in writing to the Petitioner and the University Registrar for action relative to the student record.
4. If the petition is approved by the Committee and the Petitioner is granted permission to re-apply to the University, the Petitioner must meet the academic requirements for admission or re-admission to their chosen faculty.
5. If the petition is denied by the Committee, the Committee may either set a new time period before the appellant can petition again or determine that no further petitions will be allowed. The decision of the Committee is final and cannot be appealed further.
